Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and on earth — peace,

Glo-ry to God in the high - est, and on earth — peace, peace — to peo-ple of good will. We — praise — you, we — bless — you, we a-dore — you, peace — to peo-ple of good will. we — bless — you, we a -dore — you,

The Gloria has been written as a through setting, with the responses intended as an aid to learning. It may be sung responsorially with the text Glory to God... good will, sung first by a cantor and then by all and then repeated at the § marking. In a similar way the short reponses in the middle section are omitted when not sung responsorially. It is recommended that the Amen is sung twice every time.

Optional Choir parts are included. They are for equal voices and can be sung in different ways depending on the parts available. E.g. S/S/A or Men/S/A. In places where a choir part (II, III) doubles the melody the principal part (I) may be omitted. E.g. bar 4 - I, bar 5 - II, bar 6 - III, bar 7 - I, II, III.
