Psalm 24

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.

Capo 3: D F A C Em Gm A C

Capo 3: D F A C Em/Gm Gm/Bb D/F# F/A Em Gm Bm Dm Em7/Gm Gm7/Bb D F A C Bm Dm Em Gm Bm G A4 A C4 C

1. Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me
for you are God my saviour.
2. The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
He guides the humble in the right path;
He teaches his way to the poor.
3. His ways are faithfulness and love for those who keep his covenant and will.
The Lord's friendship is for those who revere him;
to them he reveals his covenant.

1. Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offence.
O wash me more and more from my guilt
and cleanse me from my sin.
2. My offences truly I know them;
my sin is always before me.
Against you, you alone, have I sinned;
what is evil in your sight I have done.
3. That you may be justified when you give sentence
and be without reproach when you judge
O see, in guilt I was born,
a sinner was I conceived.
4. Indeed you love truth in the heart;
then in the secret of my heart
teach me wisdom
O purify me, then I shall be clean;
O wash me, I shall be whiter than snow.
5. Make me hear rejoicing and gladness,
that the bones you have crushed may thrill.
From my sins turn away your face
and blot out all my guilt.
6. A pure heart create for me, O God,
put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
nor deprive me of your holy spirit.
7. Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of ferveur sustain me,
that I may teach transgressors your ways
and sinners may return to you.
8. O rescue me, God my helper,
and my tongue shall ring out your goodness.
O Lord, open my lips
and my mouth shall declare your praise.
9. For in sacrifice you take no delight,
burnt offering from me you would refuse,
my sacrifice, a contrite spirit.
A humbled, contrite heart you will not spurn
10. In your goodness show favour to Sion:
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice,
holocausts offered on your altar.

HOLY WEEK

Holy Week 1

Psalm 21

The musical score for Psalm 21 is written for voice and piano. It begins in the key of D major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The first system shows the vocal melody with the lyrics 'My God, my God, why have you for - sa - ken me?' and piano accompaniment with chords Am, G, D, and Em. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment, with chords Em, Am/C, D, G, Am, D, Em, B, Am, G, Em, D, Bm, and Em. The score includes a key signature change to 3/4 time in the second system.

1. All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;
let him release him if this is his friend.'
2. Many dogs have surrounded me,
a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet,
I can count every one of my bones.
3. They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help me!
4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons.'

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.
2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked
to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears
and rescues them in all their distress.
3. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

2. So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise.
3. So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy.
4. For you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.
My soul clings to you;

Gm Dm Cm/Eb Gm/Bb Eb F/A Gm/D D

The first system consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G minor, starting with a whole note G, followed by a half note A, a quarter note B, and a whole note C. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand.

Al - le-lu-ia, al - le-lu-ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Capo 3: Em B4 B C G4 G Am Bm7 E4 Em

The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics 'Al - le-lu-ia, al - le-lu-ia, al - le - lu - ia.' The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern.

Capo 3: Em Bm Em/B B
Gm Dm Gm/D D

The third system concludes the piece with a final vocal phrase and piano accompaniment.

BACKGROUND NOTE

Common Psalms

The Common Psalms are found in the Lectionary, Volume I, towards the end. The section provides some Common Responses and Common Psalms for the Seasons of the Liturgical Year. The texts are provided to enable and encourage the singing of the Responsorial Psalm at Mass and may be used to replace the given psalm of the day at Mass.

This Collection

The origins of this collection was a pilgrimage where some aspects of the liturgy were not able to be planned in advance. Therefore to provide a selection of Responsorial Psalms, the Common Psalms for Ordinary Time were written.

Expanding the Selection

In preparing this collection it was decided to expand the settings by including other settings of the same psalm text, sometimes with the same psalm response, sometimes with another response. Settings are provided for:

- Common Psalms
- Sundays and Solemnities
- Sacraments of Initiation
- Penance
- Marriage
- Funerals

A Liturgical Index is provided so that settings can easily be found.

The numbering system is arranged as follows: the Common Psalm is numbered as in the Lectionary, the related setting is numbered 24.1, 24.2 etc. Settings, as a rule, follow the bullet points above except where it makes sense to place a pair of alternative responses together.

Music

The music has been written with those who are beginning to sing psalms in mind. Though Psalm Tones can seem complex to the beginner-psalmist their simplicity and flexibility unlock the possibility of singing a great number of texts. A limited number of Psalm Tones is used with just one for each key used for the responses. The same Tone is used with an individual psalm — F major for Psalm 24.

For nearly every text the whole 4 bars of the Tone is used. In verses with more than 4 lines an indent indicates where a bar runs across two lines of text.

A feature of these settings is the bars of 'extra' music between the end of the Tone and the Response. This is offered for two reasons: to provide space between Psalm and Response; to allow guitar-based groups a way to get back into 'time' or the pulse before the Response. If desired, these could be omitted. The last sung note of the Psalm Tone lasts as long as it would if the extra bars were not there, i.e. quite short.

A note on the Text

I was able, while preparing this collection, to clarify something in my own mind which I had previously been only slightly aware of, that the current edition of the Lectionary is often inconsistent. That ostensibly the same response can be given in a number of versions (cf. Psalm 18) or that the content of the verses can be different even when they have the same verse reference (cf. Psalm 84). I have not checked the Ordo Lectionum Missae (the Latin source text for the Lectionary) to see where the inconsistency comes from.
