

Remember your mercy, Lord

Psalm 24 (25)

Music by Martin Foster

The musical score is written in 6/8 time with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with the lyrics: "Re - mem - ber your mer - cy, O Lord, and the love you have shown from of old." The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and a treble line with chords and melodic fragments.

1. Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me
for you are God my saviour.
2. Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord.
3. The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor.

Psalm 24 (25):4–9 R̄. v.6

- cf. 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

In this Jubilee Year, may the Church echo the word of God that resounds strong and clear as a message and a sign of pardon, strength, aid, and love. May she never tire of extending mercy, and be ever patient in offering compassion and comfort. May the Church become the voice of every man and woman, and repeat confidently without end: “Be mindful of your mercy, O Lord, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old” [MV25]
