

Psalm 68

In your great love, answer me, O God.

1. It is for yóu that I súffer táunts, that sháme cówers my fáce,
that I have becóme a stránger
to my bróthers,
an álien to mý own mother's sóns.
I burn with zéal fór your hóuse and táunts agáinst you fall on mé.

2. Thís is my práyer to yóu, my práyer fór your fávour.
In your great lóve, ánsWer me,
O Gód,
with your hélp that néver fáils:
Lord, ánsWer, fór your love
is kínd;
in your compásson, túrn
towards mé.

3. The póor when they sée it will be glád
and Gód-seeking héarts
will revíve;
for the Lórd lístens to the néedy
and does not spúrn his sérvants in their cháins.
Let the héavens and the éarth
give him práise,
the séa and áll its living créatures.
