

Year A

1st Sunday of Lent

Christ in the de - sert, hun - gry and tired, temp - ted by Sa - tan's wiles.
Through A - dam's sin we all have sinned and through his sin came death;
O wash me more and more from my guilt, cleanse me from all my sin.

Wor - ship the Lord your God on high and serve the Lord God a - lone.
but through Christ's death we are for - giv'n and of - fered e - ter - nal life.
Give me a - gain your help, O Lord; my mouth shall de - clare your praise.

2nd Sunday of Lent

This is my Son, the Son whom I love, my fa - vour rests on him.
Called to be ho - ly through God's own grace gran - ted through Christ our Lord;
God looks on those who hope in his love, on those who wor - ship him.

Do not re - veal what you have seen 'til Christ has been raised from death.
death is a - bol - ished, life pro - claimed and we have e - ter - nal life.
Lord, let your love now be on us, we place all our hope in you.

3rd Sunday of Lent

All those who drink the wa - ter I give — will ne - ver thirst a - gain; — the Through faith in Je - sus we are at peace, — by grace we live in hope; —
Come, now, ring out your joy to the Lord, — praise to the Lord our rock; — wa - ter I give be - comes a springs — which pours out e - ter - nal life. — the Ho - ly Spi - rit giv'n to us — pours God's love in - to our hearts. — come be - fore God and give him thanks, — with songs let us hail the Lord. —

4th Sunday of Lent

Lord, I be - lieve that you are the Christ, — Je - sus the world's true light. —
Once you were dark - ness, now you are light; — live in the light of Christ. —
If I should walk through dark - ness and death — now e - vil would I fear. —

Christ comes for judge - ment in this world — and so that the blind might see. —
Wake from your sleep and rise from death — and so Christ will shine in you. —
You have pre - prepared a feast from me; — my head you a - noint with oil. —

5th Sunday of Lent

Lord, I be - lieve that you are the Christ, — you are the Son of God, —
The Spi - rit who raised Christ from the dead, — that Spi - rit lives in you; —
Out of the depths I cry out to you, — O Lord, now hear my voice. — the re - sur - rec - tion and the life — who rai - ses us up from death. — then he who raised Christ from the dead — will raise you to life in Christ. —

God of com - pas - sion, God of love, — for this we re - vere you, Lord. —

Year B

1st Sunday of Lent

Je - sus pro - claims the Good News of God: The time of God has come. The Christ died for us, to lead us to God: ri - sen at God's right hand. The Show me your paths and teach me your ways for you are God my Sa - viour. Re - king - dom of God is close at hand. Re - pent and be - lieve the Good News.

 wa - ter of life re - moves our sins; the wa - ter that gives new life.
 mem - ber your mer - cy and your love; the love you have shown from old.

2nd Sunday of Lent

On the high moun - tain a voice was heard: 'See my be - lov - ed Son.'
 God did not spare his on - ly Son; of - fered him up for all.
 Your ser - vant, Lord, your ser - vant am I, for you have set me free.

When they came down Christ said to them: 'Speak not 'til I con - quer death.'
 Christ died for us, and rose from death and pleads now at God's right hand.
 A sac - ri - fice of praise and thanks I make to the Lord's own name.

3rd Sunday of Lent

Christ in the tem - ple scat - ters the stalls, shows zeal for his Fa - ther's house.
 Christ we pro - claim is Christ cru - ci - fied, the wis - dom and pow'r of God. The God's law is per - fect; God's law is truth: the words of e - ter - nal life.

Des - troy this tem - ple, in three days Christ's bo - dy will be raised up.
 weak - ness of God, his fool - ish - ness is more than we dare i - ma - gine.
 All who fear God keep his com - mands; his love is from age to age.

4th Sunday of Lent

God sent his Son in - to the world not to con - demn the world.
 Gen - 'rous in mer - cy God loved the world: brought us new life in Christ. Cre -
 How could we sing the song of the Lord the song of love and mer - cy?

So that in Christ the world might live and have e - ter - nal life.
 a - ted in Christ, God's work of art, we live God's e - ter - nal plan.
 Ne - ver for - get the works of God who of - fers e - ter - nal life.

5th Sunday of Lent

Un - less a grain of wheat shall fall, fall to the ground and dies, it
 In si - lent tears, in pray - ers a loud, sub - mit - ting to the Fa - ther God of com - pas - sion, God of love cleanse me from my sin.

on - ly re - mains a sin - gle grain but dy - ing it brings new life.
 Christ of - fers all who seek his will the source of e - ter - nal life.
 Give us a - gain your joy and help that all may re - turn to you.

Year C

1st Sunday of Lent

Christ in the des - ert, hun - gry and tired, tempt - ed for for - ty days. _____
 Christ on our lips shame and Christ in our hearts; this is our faith pro - claimed. _____
 God saw with me, Lord, and heard _____ cry; saved us from E - gypt's pow'r. _____
 Be with me, Lord, in my _____ dis - tress; ans - wer me, when I call. _____

We do not live on bread a - lone but on ev - ry Word from God. _____
 Je - sus is Lord by God raised up: _____ in his name you will be saved. _____
 With out - stretched hand and my arm _____ God res - cued us from our foes. _____
 You are my strong - hold and my rock, _____ in you now I place my trust. _____

2nd Sunday of Lent

On the high moun - tain a voice was heard: 'See my be - lov - ed Son.' _____
 Fol - low God's way, the rule _____ of life; leave earth - ly things a - side. _____
 A - bram trusts God with faith _____ and hope; God makes a cov - ren - ant. _____
 Your face, O Lord, is all _____ I seek; hide not your face from me. _____

When they came down Christ said to them: _____ 'Speak not 'til I con - quer death.' _____
 For us, our home - land is in heav'n _____ where Christ will trans - fig - ure us. _____
 Look to the heav - ens, see the stars _____ and so shall your child - ren be. _____
 Hold firm, take heart and trust in God. _____ The Lord is my light, my help. _____

Je - sus warns those who fol - low him: re - pent now or suf - fer death.
 What we have read and who what we low heard in in - script - ure, or liv - ing death.
 From burn - ing bush and God's voice we have heard: 'I am God's word is My soul give thanks, give thanks to the Lord and bless his ho - ly God's name.

God warn - ing - fers hope to all who will bear fruit in e - ter - nal life. Christ.
 I heard and your cries to of lib - er - ty and now I thw way set of you free.
 God of com - pas - sion, God of love re - deem us from all our sin.

4th Sunday of Lent

God will for give the bro ken and lost, ex iles will jour ney home.
A new cre a tion, liv ing and Christ; the old now is passed ney home.
God has for giv en all of your sins; the freed you from is now way.
This poor man called and God heard his cry, res cued him from E gypt's shame.
dis tress.

The Son of Man once dead re- turns to life; give praise for God's bound- less love.
 We are am- bas- sa- dors to Christ; him now in the fruits of now God's re- less con- ciled.
 Come, taste the bread and ears for of corn, boast. The hum- ble will sing his prom- ised land.
 For in the Lord my soul shall boast. The hum- ble will sing his praise.

Sun Sunday of Lent

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It features a treble and bass staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The hymn is titled 'Sun Sunday of Lent'.

Christ has com - pas - sion, mer - cy and love; of - fers the sin - ner hope.
All that I want all that I hope: know-ledge of Christ the Lord.
Through sav - ing wa - ters God leads us with on; do not re - call the past.
Those who were sow - ing weeped once with tears. Now they all sing for joy.

'No one can demns you, nor do I: rise up for Christ sets you free.
 Shar - ing his suf - f'ring and of - fers death we rise rise ter - ya - nal
 New hope for all God of us: us: sing praise to our God, sing life.
 God has worked mar - vels for us all; re - joice in his sa - ving praise. work.