

Let the peo - ple praise you, O God;

The first line of music is written on a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a common time signature (C) and contains two measures. The first measure has a quarter rest followed by two eighth notes. The second measure contains a triplet of eighth notes. The line ends with a 2/4 time signature and a half note.

let all the peo - ples praise you.

The second line of music is written on a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a common time signature (C) and contains two measures. The first measure has a quarter rest followed by two eighth notes. The second measure contains a triplet of eighth notes. The line ends with a 2/4 time signature and a half note.